

Grain Site Attendant: This candidate must have a good understanding of on-site grain flow including; grain legs, distributors, conveyors and grain dryer operations. This position will require climbing stairs and working at heights greater than 50 feet. This candidate will be responsible for daily grain handling operations including; maintaining a clean site, general maintenance of grain handling equipment, working with farmers and contract haulers loading and unloading grain. The candidate must have a good understanding of scale house operations including; scale operation, grain identification, grain condition and grain testing. This position will require you be diverse in job duties at our LaBolt Farmers Grain (LFG) locations. This position also requires overtime hours during certain times of the year.